PUBLIC SUPPORT, SOCIAL MEDIA BEHIND ACB RAIDS:ACB DG

There is a lot of public support and social media tips helped us to prepare a meticulous planning to catch the corrupted persons in a big way particularly major ACB raids in the state of Andhra Pradesh, revealed by Andhra Pradesh State Anti Corruption Bureau Director General RP Thakur here on Friday at GITAM University. He participated as Chief Guest in Sensitization Program on Preventive Vigilance Measures program jointly organized by GITAM School of Law and ACB Visakhapatnam Range.

While addressing the gathering he informed that ACB in AP is preparing more stringent acts like binami act to control the corruption for the sake of newly established AP state growth. He mentioned that where there are more development activities there is a lot of chance to increased corruption practice. He said that the state ACB is coordinating with Central Vigilance Enforcement, CBI and Income Tax department during the raids. He informed that the conviction rate in AP state ACB cases is 70 percent which is very high when compare with CBI. We are achieving this with our limited manpower, continuous reviews and public support, he added. He said that ACB is equally concentrating on complainant protection particularly after filing the cases the department is taking the responsibility of releasing the seized amounts, completing the pending works of complainant in that particular case. He said that their aim is to create a corruption free society for the overall development of the state.

GVMC Commissioner M.Harinarayana said that one must note that joining in government service means serving the society not for making the money. He mentioned that corruption is a big hurdle to development and also creating unrest in the society. Visakhapatnam Range Deputy Inspector of Police CHSrikanth said that corruption is impediment of society and the future generation must think about corruption free society. The Deputy Transport Commissioner S.Venkateswara Rao informed about recent changes in RTA department particularly issuing online license to avoid middle men. He said that they want to bring 83 RTA services under online wing to avoid corruption in the department.

GITAM School of Law Director Prof.Y.Satyanarayana observed that RTA is a strong weapon in the hands of common man to fight against corruption. He appreciated the ACB officials for their recent corruption controlling measures. ACB Visakhapatnam Dy. Superintendent of Police KVRKPrasad and others participated in the program.

Earlier the ACB officials offered floral tributes at Mahatma Gandhi statue along with GITAM University Vice-Chancellor Prof.MSPrasada Rao, Pro Vice-Chancellor Prof.K.Sivarama Krishna , Registrar Prof.M.Potharaju.
